

TAKE our free FLEGT Readiness Assessment

Do you know how to ensure your company's practices are in line with the demands of the EU, US and Australian export markets?

Does your company know about FLEGT and its requirements?

Our FLEGT Readiness Assessment is designed to help you

Review and evaluate your business practices against crucial requirements in the Vietnamese Timber Legality Definition and the EU Timber Regulation

Ensure you have an effective system to track materials

Streamline your business practices

What does the FLEGT Readiness Assessment cover

The onsite assessment includes a review of your company's compliance with relevant legislation, the information you have about your timber supplies and your record management and Chain of Custody systems.

You will receive recommendations from our expert staff to help you improve your company's readiness for FLEGT.

Where applicable the project staff will offer one-on-one training in the use of the project toolkit to help improve your company's readiness.

You will receive a report outlining the assessment findings and recommendations for your business.

What is the timeline

This free assessment programme will last from 17th September to 12th November 2015.

The one-day assessment consists of two parts:

MORNING:
Overall assessment including trip to factory (where applicable)

AFTERNOON:
Findings presentation, recommendations and tailored training for enterprises by our experts

We will contact you shortly for further information.

Email VNFLEGT@nepcon.net before 19th October 2015.

How to register

It is advisable that you visit our website <http://flegt-tools.org> for more information on what the assessment will cover and a generic agenda (which will be tailored for your company's assessment after an informal chat with our staff).
